

Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on April 5, 2006

“... We do have to do something about the energy problem. I can tell you that nothing has really taken me aback more as secretary of State than the way that the politics of energy is - I will use the word warping diplomacy around the world...we have simply got to do something about the warping now of diplomatic effort by the all-out rush for energy supply.”
